Family Activities:

Keep Going!

When it comes to following God, He gives you what you need to keep going because He promises He will never leave you. Blow up a balloon and practice tapping it to keep it in the air as you repeat the words of the bible verse. For an extra challenge, try it with two or three balloons!

Thank God for the reminder that you can keep going with determination because He will never desert you.

Learn from a Friend

Who is the most determined person you know? Maybe it's someone who has accomplished some things that seem impossible to you. Or maybe they've had to overcome some really hard obstacles in their life, but they've never given up.

With your parent's help, reach out to that person today and ask them what helps them keep going no matter what—how do they keep working, moving toward their goal? Is what helps them keep going something that you can use on your journey toward your own seemingly impossible goal?

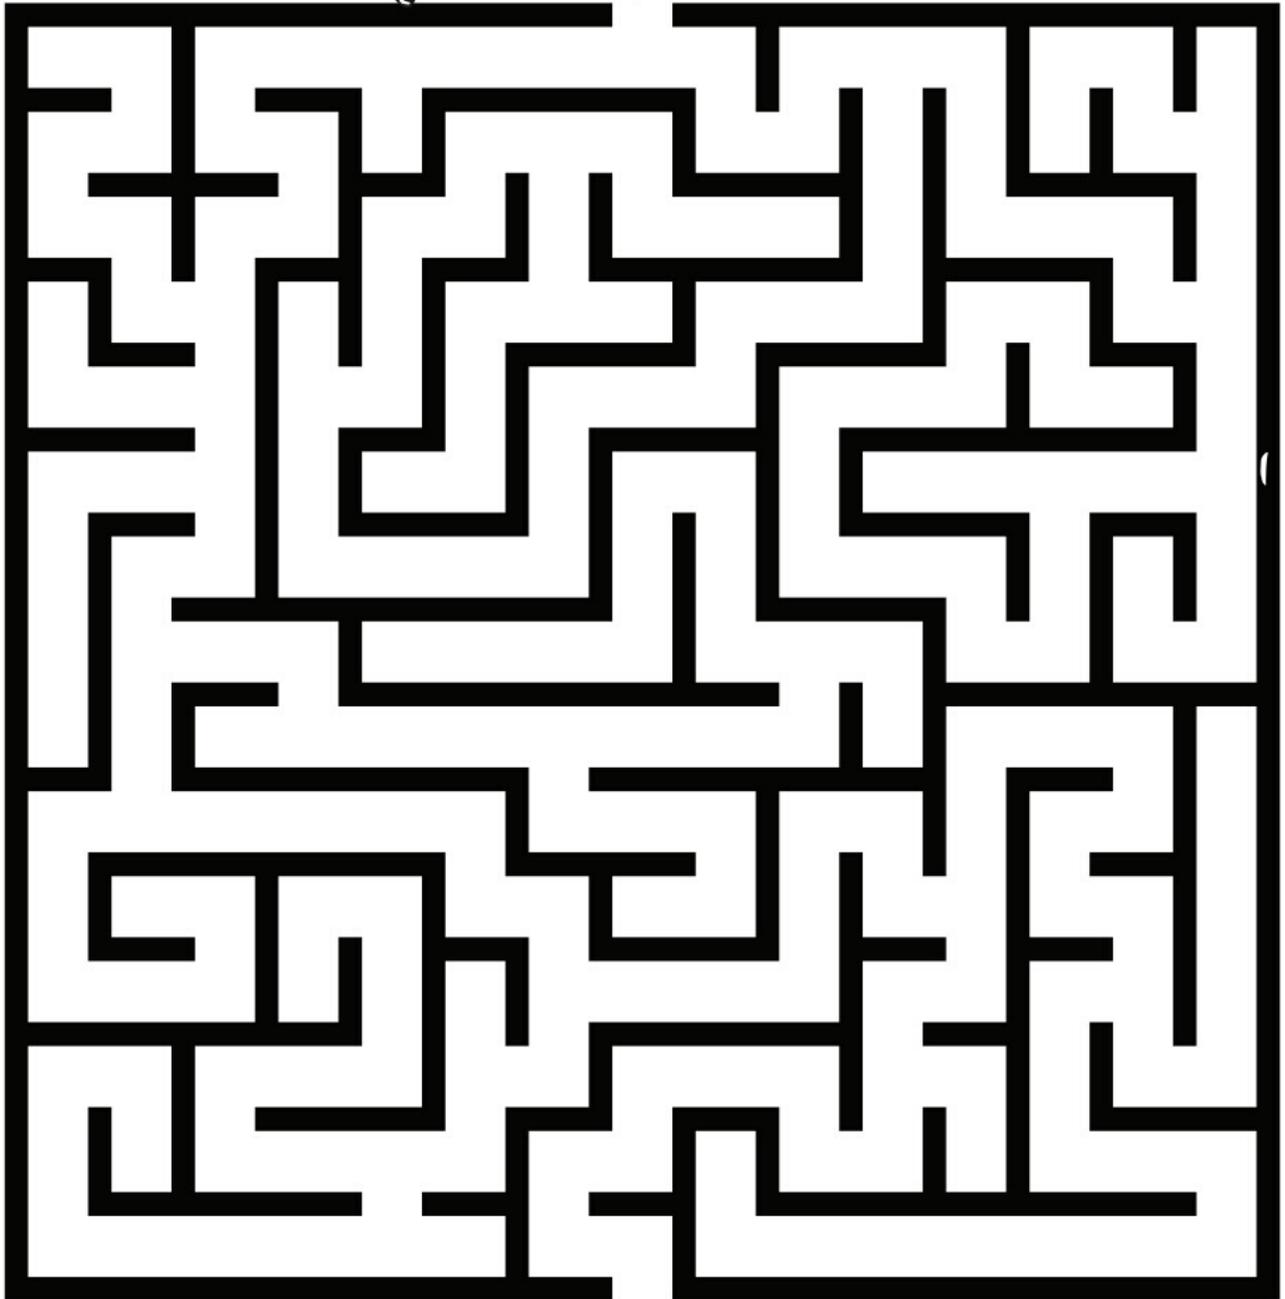

Talk with God

Talk to God about something you're facing right now that seems impossible. As you pray, walk around either outside in your backyard or even just inside your room. Don't stop moving the entire time you're praying.

Tell God:

- What you're facing that seems impossible
- Why it seems impossible
- How you feel about it
- How you need His help to keep going

Lastly, end your prayer by thanking God for His presence and His power. When you're done praying, you can stop walking. But even after you stop walking, keep going toward what seems impossible, and remember God will give you what you need to keep going.
